

Clark Brown
913.406.6878
San Francisco Bay Area
clarkdbro@gmail.com

Education

Indiana University August 2012-May 2015
Master in Music
Studies with Bruce Bransby and Kurt Muroki

Carnegie Mellon University August 2009-August 2012
Graduate Teaching Assistant
Performance Residency - Studies with Jeff Turner and Micah Howard

University of Southern California August 2005-May 2008
Bachelor's of Arts with and Emphasis in Humanities
Studies with David Moore, Dennis Trembly, Nico Abondolo

Olathe Northwest High School Graduated May, 2005
-Spent junior year studying double bass with Jeff Bradetich, bass professor at the University of North Texas

Experience

Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra – Substitute March 2016

New World Symphony- Substitute November 2014

American Youth Symphony – Principal 2007-2008

University of Southern California Orchestral Ensembles 2005-2008

Carnegie Mellon Orchestral Ensemble 2009-2012

Indiana University Orchestra 2012-2014

ROPA- Substitute 2009-present
Santa Monica, Richmond, Canton Symphony, Akron Symphony

Private Music Lessons – Teacher 2007-present
Specializing in Double Bass, Bass Guitar, Piano and Music Theory

Festivals

Pacific Music Festival 2014
Work with Maestro Osmo Vänskä, Conductor of the Minnesota
Lessons with Hal Robinson, Principal of Philadelphia Orchestra
-Principal Bass

Chautauqua Institution Summers of 2008 and 2009
Private Study with Curtis Burris, former member of the National Symphony Orchestra
-Principal Bass

National Youth Orchestra of the Netherlands 2007
Toured Belgium and Holland performing a broad range of music including Mozart, Beethoven and Ligeti Conductors included Jos von Immerseel and George Benjamin

Competitions

Pittsburgh Double Bass Symposium Orchestral Competition 2012
1st Place